

Online Ethics Center
FOR ENGINEERING AND SCIENCE

Teaching Ethics in an International Context

Author(s)

Brent Jesiek
Paul Gannon

Year

2020

Description

As part of the "Bringing Ethics into the Conversation" series, Dr. Rosalyn Berne, Director of the OEC, hosted students, academics, and professionals in conversations about teaching ethics. This webinar featured Dr. Brent Jesiek, Associate Professor, Purdue University, School of Engineering Education & Electrical Engineering. Dr. Jesiek spoke about teaching ethics within an international context. He was joined by Dr. Paul Gannon, Associate Professor of Chemical and Biological Engineering at Montana State University - Bozeman.

Body

{"preview_thumbnail":"/sites/onlineethics/files/styles/video_embed_wysiwyg_preview/public/v
Video (580x315)."}]

Rights

Use of Materials on the OEC

Resource Type

Multimedia

Parent Collection

OEC Webinars

Topics

Pedagogical Approaches

Social Responsibility

Teaching Ethics

Discipline(s)

Teaching Ethics in STEM

International Perspectives

Publisher

Online Ethics Center